SENIOR HISTORY

Freshman Year--Pres.----------Robert Hotmer
V. Pres.----------John Deuble
Sec.-Treas.----------Richard Jacobs

On September 8, 1943, seventeen members of our class returned to school to bear the honored title of "Freshman." Willa Jean Sinclair had come from Meadville, Pennsylvania, to join us. After three weeks of school, we were properly initiated. We enjoyed a Hallowe'en party with the Sophomores and a Christmas party at school. Mr Amos was our sponsor.

Sophomore Year--Pres.----------Frances Urban
V. Pres.----------Evelyn Reynolds
Sec.-Treas.---------William Kurfess

We were glad to welcome three new classmates at the beginning of our Sophomore year--LeRoy Wohltman, Evelyn Reynolds, and Benny Langell. Willa Jean Sinclair left Luckey during the summer, and this brought our enrollment to eighteen. This year we had the fun of initiating the Freshmen. We had a Hallowe'en party in Evans' barn. Mr. Filiere was our sponsor.

Junior Year--Pres.----------Jack Biler
V. Pres.----------Jane Bringman
Sec.----------Benny Langell
Treas.----------Mary Louise Harmeyer

When we returned to pursue our studies as Juniors, we found that we no longer had Bob Hotmer and Evelyn Reynolds with us. "There Goes Henry" was selected as our class play. We held our Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom on February 26, so that the Senior boys who were entering the Service could attend. Mr. Filiere was our sponsor.

Senior Year--Pres.----------Benny Langell
V. Pres.---------Mary Louise Harmeyer
Sec.----------Virginia Jacobs
Treas.----------Frances Urban

Fourteen members of our class returned to claim the distinction of being Seniors. Soon after school started, Jack Biler moved to Holgate. We had our pictures taken October 23, at the Leone Studios in Toledo. This year we chose "Here Comes Charlie" as our class play. Thus we finished our high school career: wiser--we hope--but not sadder. Mr. Filiere was our sponsor.

SENIOR PROPHECY

My but the country seems to be slipping away from me fast. I'll bet I'm going 250 miles an hour now. No, I'm not in an airplane. I am Mr. Average citizen of 1956 trying out my new 1956 Bell helicopter.

Let's see; it was only ten years ago my class graduated from good old Troy. I wonder how successful they have been.

I'm flying over a fertile corn district in Iowa now. I think I'll go down and hover over that pretty set of farm buildings. What a carefully planned farm. Why it's John Deuble on that tractor!

I'm approaching Chicago now. I'll land at that airport over there. Well, I'm on good old terra firma at last. A tall, dark-haired man just stepped out of that new Navy plane. I know by his walk that it is Lieutenant Commander George B. Langell of the Naval Research Staff.

While having my helicopter serviced and stored I'll hail that taxi. "Taxi! Downtown please." I believe I'll eat in this cafeteria. This sign says it's managed by June Kinker and Virginia Jacobs. No wonder it's Chicago's largest.

My, this street is crowded. I wonder why so many women are entering that new building. The neon sign outside says "Beauty Shoppe". I see that Marian Bockbrader and Illa Evans are owners and operators.

What is that crash? An accident has just occurred on the next corner. It looks serious, but things are well in hand because Nurse Gloria Reamsnyder has just stepped from the ambulance and is administering first aid. The police car has just arrived and an officer is giving orders. I'ts LeRoy Wohltman, Assistant Chief of Police. A newspaper reporter is getting information from witnesses of the accident. Her press card shows it's Mary Harmeyer, Assistant Editor of the Chicago Sun. While the crowd is still milling around the accident, I believe I'll step inside this large hotel. My, but this corridor is beautiful. It says on this door, Arthur Murray Dancing Studios, Frances Urban Head Instructor.

To top off my stay in Chicago I believe I'll see the Chicago White Sox play the Washington Senators. This seems to be a good seat. What a handsome young couple is approaching! Hats are off to them. Why, it's the Mayor and his wife, the former Jane Bringman. Well, back to the ball game. The Senators are taking the field now. A broadcast on the public address system says that Dick Jacobs, star of the Senators is pitching. What a game--but the Senators won. At last I am out of that shouting, shoving mass of people. "Taxi! Airport please."

SENIOR WILL

We, the class of 1946, in the town of Luckey, the county of Wood, and the state of Ohio, being in as good mental condition as usual, and in much better temper than usual, do hereby make this, our last will and testament, rendering void and of no avail any former will or wills that may have been previously made by us during a period of temporary optimism. The individual bequests are as follows:

Bill Kurfess wills his ink bottle, which resides in the southeast corner of his desk, to the next person who occupies said desk.

LeRoy Wohltman has nothing he can spare, but will appreciate anything anyone has to give away.

Mary Louise Harmeyer wills her executive ability to any person able to stand the strain.

June Kinker wills her back desk to Donald Oestreich.

Marian Bochbrader wills her broken desk to Marlyn Rolf.

John Deuble wills his Senior year to Paul Welling.

Gloria Reamsnyder wills her height to Ruth Brueggemeier.

Frances Urban wills her ability to catch rides to "Cousin" Roach.

Jane Bringman is unwilling to will Dick to anyone.

Ben Langell wills his Latin books to anyone who will take them.

Illa Evans wills her hair-dos to Doris Holtmeyer.

Virginia Jacobs wills her locker to Lena Young.

Dick Jacobs wills his athletic ability to Roy Christen.

Finally, we do hereby name and appoint as the sole executor of this, our last will and testament, our class advisor, Mr. Filiere.

In witness whereof, we the class of 1946, the testator, have set our hand and seal on this 29th day of April in the year of 1946.

GRADE NEWS

The enrollment in the First Grade is 25. Barbara Brockseker and Robert Filiere had perfect attendance the first semester.

The enrollment in the Second Grade is 24. Janet Kopp and Patty Finn had perfect attendance. The First Grade gave a playlet, "The Land of Mother Goose" and the Second Grade gave a Columbus Day Program. Both were given as assembly programs.

The Third Grade enrollment in September was 17. Robert Tole entered in October. Those having perfect attendance are Freddie Baker, Nancy Crispen and Robert Tole. They used Halloween as the theme for their program.

The enrollment for the Fourth Grade is 16, and the Fifth Grade in Mrs. Jennings' room is 11. Those having perfect attendance are Barbara Amos, Wallace Dierker, David Jacobs, Arlene Miller, Samuel Musser, Roscoe Crispen and Dale Jacobs. In November the Fourth and Fifth Grades gave an Indian program for their assembly. In April the Third, Fourth and Fifth Grades worked together for the Easter program.

The Fifth Grade enrollment in Miss Brown's room is 11. The Sixth Grade enrollment is 19. Teddy Barber has a perfect attendance record.

The Fifth and Sixth Grades joined with the Seventh and Eighth for a Thanksgiving program. They gave a choral reading, the selection entitled "Father, We Thank Thee."

Miss Offerman gave three Achievement Tests during the year. The subjects were spelling, arithmetic and oral reading. All medians were above average in each grade.

During the year each grade held several parties. The first one, the Halloween party, displayed all sorts of queer costumes. At Christmas the pupils enjoyed their Christmas trees and gift exchanges. Last, the Easter egg hunt proved to be most exciting and was especially enjoyed by the lower grades.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF.....

Dick J. ever really hurried?

Bill K. didn't start an argument in geometry?

We didn't have any artistic souls like Gretchen?

Mrs. Drake didn't have a sense of humor?

Mr. Amos stopped eating?

The Sophomores ever gave a serious assembly program?

Ernest S. didn't rule the library with an iron hand?

No one ever borrowed any paper or pencils?

If Helen kept the same hair do two weeks?

If Russ Welling lost his trumpet?

LaQuitta didn't have at least one heart-throb?

Mary Louise couldn't take a joke?

Grace E. couldn't visit the library at least once every day?

Joanne O. couldn't play basketball well?

Curly could stay awake?

Wilma weren't a whiz at translating Latin?

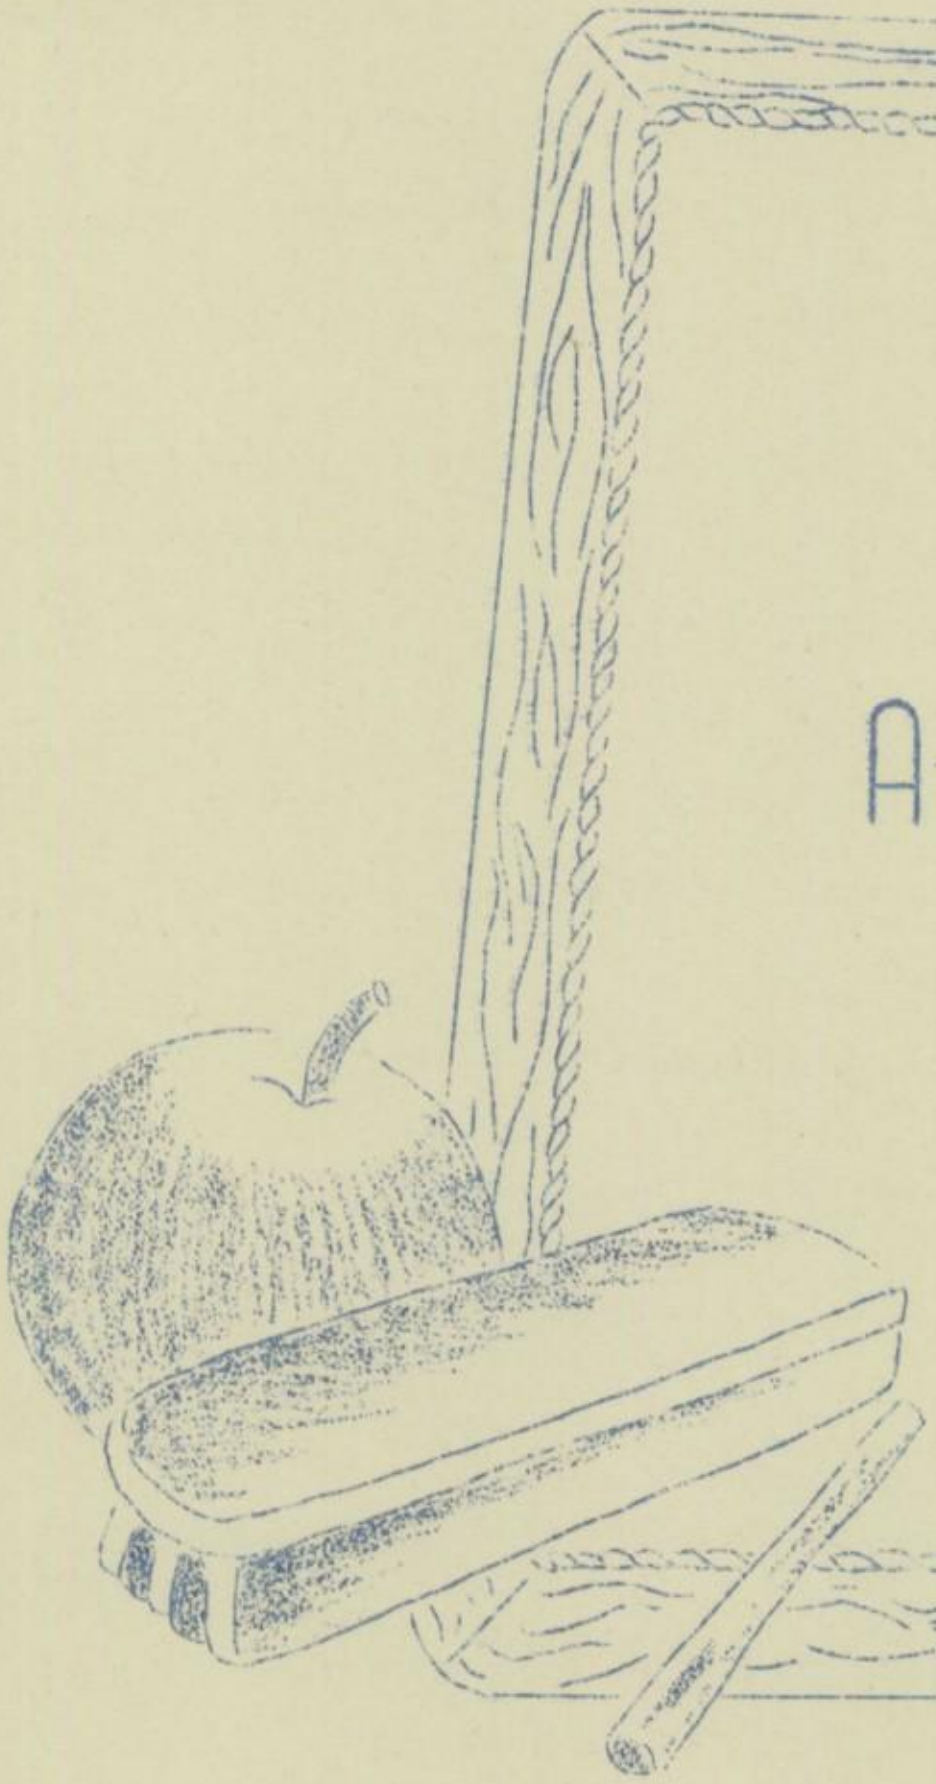
The Jr. Hi cheerleaders weren't so bashful?

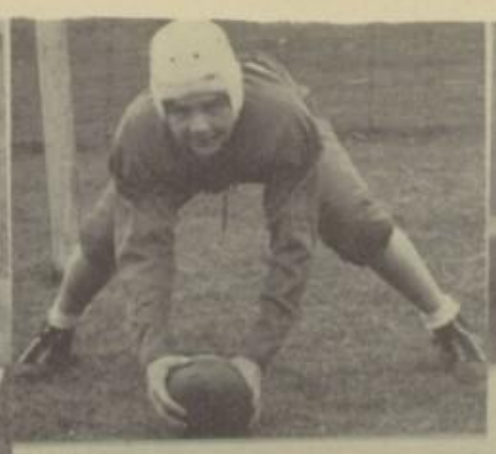
Miss Bresler didn't get so enthusiastic about Physical Education?

There weren't any posters for the bulletin board?

All the library books were brought back on time?

Athletics





FOOTBALL

The eleven boys who reported to Coach Amos this year comprised one of the smallest squads in Trojan football history. The following boys were on the team: Captain LeRoy Wohltman, Richard Jacobs, John Hannan, Rolland Huss, Russell Ruch, Bill Loomis, Merlin Miller, George Rife, Keith Fleming, Junior Tracy, and Donald Hotmer. Small but mighty the Trojans went through their season losing only two games and winning six.

The Varsity basketball team, coached by Mr. Filiere, had a very successful season. The Trojans won sixteen games and lost only two. For the third consecutive year the team has won the Northeastern League championship. Honor was also brought to Troy when Rolland Huss was selected as center on the All-County Team and Captain John Hannan received honorable mention.

RESERVES

The Reserve basketball squad played the same schedule as the Varsity with the exception of the two North Troy games and the Alumni game. The season was very successful with twelve wins and only one defeat. The team scored a total of 435 points to their opponents' 218.

JUNIOR HIGH

Much honor was brought to our school by the Junior High basketball team when, after winning all six scheduled games during the season, it won four games at the County Tournament at Tontogany. This was the first County Championship trophy won by a Troy Luckey team.

The team, coached by Mr. Amos, showed superb ball handling and cool playing throughout the season and the tournament. In the next few years these are the boys who will be depended upon to bring more trophies to Troy and they show great possibilities.

CAN YOU IMAGINE.....

The library at noon without Latin students?

Frances Urban not well-groomed?

Jane more than half awake at 9:00?

Darlene not being in a hurry?

Donald not having his Latin done?

John's hair being straight?

The Juniors without their class meetings?

Illa not being busy?

Russ Ruch without his cute walk?

Having class parties anywhere but Roadside park?

Dudley not making the Jr. Hi girls' hearts beat faster?

The gum shortage lasting any longer?

George R. without his bright remarks?

Dick Samson being six feet tall?

Donald O. not being brisk and efficient?

George being on a diet?

Merlin not having a girl in every port?

The gym being quiet at noon?

Mary Jacobs not looking like something out of "Seventeen"?

Kathleen not rejoicing over her 15th birthday?

HUMOR

JUST LIKE HOME

GUIDE: This castle has stood for three hundred years. Not a stone has been touched. Nothing has been replaced or repaired.
VISITING YANK: Must have the same landlord we have.

PROGRESS

A fly and her daughter were walking down the middle of an elderly man's head.

"How things change, my dear," said Mama Fly. "When I was your age, this plaza was only a footpath."

SHAGGY DOG

Seeing a man and a dog playing checkers, the spectator expressed amazement and said the dog would make the man's fortune in the movies or a circus. The man was unimpressed. "I wouldn't say he was so smart," he declared. "I've beaten him four out of the last five games."

ORIGINAL

POOR GOLFER: Well, how do you like my game?
CADDY: I suppose it's all right but I still prefer golf.

WAYS AND MEANS

SMALL BOY: Father said will you please lend us the radio tonight?
NEIGHBOR: With pleasure, sonny. Are you giving a party tonight?
SMALL BOY: No, sir, we want to get some sleep.

COST OF LIVING

"How's this, waiter? You've charged me two dollars and a half for a piece of planked steak."

"Sorry sir, but lumber's gone up again."

Music

TROY
TWP. SCHOOL BAND
LUCKEY, OHIO

ORCHESTRA

MUSIC

It seems each year the enrollment of our toy band increases. This year there were fifty-two members. The Mothers' Club is going to buy materialto make more hats and capes. It has paid for these new instruments: new castanets, jingle sticks, and two pairs of caracas.

Mary Helm accompanied the toy band. It played for the Christmas program and an assembly program in March.

There were nine members in the beginning band when it was organized in September. However, Kenneth Knitz turned in his horn in October, and Carol Baker went to California. When Carol Baker returned from her trip, she began to play the bass drum. The other members all play the cornet or trumpet: Helen Tracy, Donna Marie Welling, Doris Ruswinkle, Jimmy and Joe Helm, David Jacobs, and Ronnie Webb. This group has not made a public appearance.

There were ten members in the junior band: David Kopp and Dickie Eilert, first cornet; Bobby Aspacher, second cornet; Jimmy Ford, third cornet; Florence Miller and Joan Miller, first clarinet; Charles Albright, B^b soprano saxophone; Keith Fleming, snare drum; Donald Hotmer, bass drum; George Rife, sousaphone.

This group played two numbers for the Mothers' Club in February: "Activity March" and "Indian Boy," a novelty number.

George Rife is the only new member in the senior band. He began to play the sousaphone in October and soon joined the band. The band played at three football games, in the Calithumpian Parade in Bowling Green, at the Wood County Basketball Tournament, and on Memorial Day.

The drum majorettes are the same as last year, but Darlene Myers and Mary Jacobs have stepped out front with Theone Ruch to lead the band in marching. Theone is wearing the uniform made for Carolyn Johanssen--except the hat which we have misplaced. The Mothers' Club will buy a new one as soon as they are being made again. Mary and Darlene are wearing the DeMarco girls' uniforms.

MUSIC

The orchestra played for the Junior Play, the Senior Play, and Commencement. Harold Hoelter turned in his music at the end of the first semester and Roger Ernsthausen has taken his place as second trumpet. We are especially sorry to lose Benny Langell, Frances Urban, Jane Bringman, and Illa Evans for there are no students playing the instruments they do who could replace them.

The chorus this year made two public appearances: The first was in April when it sang these four numbers for the Mothers' Club: "Allouette", "Watch and Pray", "When Johnny Comes Marching Home", and "Younger Generation." The second appearance will be Commencement night when the chorus will sing Fred Waring arrangements of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" and a negro spiritual, "Set Down, Servant." Mary Langell is the accompanist.

Your Favorite G. I.

Is back on the job at The Gray Printing Co. The same zeal, the same determination and the same ability that carried him to success on the fighting front is imbued in the work he does on your printing requirements.

The fact that we continue to be the largest printers of school annuals in the state is proof positive that our quality, skill and service have always been and continue to be the best. And, in years to come that same workmanship and service will be maintained because our organization is now augmented by the man who fought for you and us . . .

. . . YOUR FAVORITE G.I.

ANNUALS THAT WILL LIVE

As an ever constant reminder of happy times —your Annual is always a ready reference. A forgotten name—a forgotten place—those that meant so much when you were in High School or College can be found in your yearbook. Pictures and articles depicting happy years are all there—in your favorite Annual. And, to have had a part in the planning and execution of this fine book makes us proud . . . proud because we know they record events that will continue to convey happy memories through the years.
